Meet the Warrior Woman: Finding inner power to speak up at work

Thursday, 11 July 2019
Organised by Primetime Business and Professional Women's Association

Recent times have seen substantial cultural shifts in terms of women's identity, expression and space in the workplace. Expectations around 'being a woman with a career' are evolving; both internally (within ourselves) and externally (within our culture). We're seeing examples of strong, successful women with big power, big hearts and big dreams. Women who won't compromise themselves or their values on their journeys to success. Women who are demonstrating a new type of leadership, and accessing a power within themselves that we all possess.

In this session, on 11th of July, you will learn:

- Who is the Warrior Woman, and what can we learn from her
- What are the patterns that could hold us back at work and how to deal with them, Warrior Woman style!
- How to promote yourself with confidence & power
- Proven tactics that help to set the right expectations

Towards Mindful Living

Saturday, 20 July 2019

Organised by Cadence Coaching and Consulting

Towards mindful living is a workshop intended to provide a conducive space for participants to rejuvenate, and to support them in enhancing their well-being through engaging in relaxation and mindfulness practices. Relaxation exercises help us to move out of an aroused, activated, stressed state into a calmer and regulated state. Together with mindfulness practices, we will learn to step out of our automatic pilot mode and become more aware of our thoughts-feelings and our experience in the here and now. This allows us to cut through the clutter and be more present and clear on the actual experience/issues. Being present and having clarity enable us to make conscious choices on how we may want to act and respond so that we can be more effective.
