The Lives of Women: How have women progressed in Singapore since independence?

2 November 2019 - 19 January 2020
10.00 am to 7.00 pm

The Lives of Women:

How have women progressed in Singapore since independence?

By the Singapore Women's Hall of Fame

This exhibition is the second of the three-part series about the lives of women in Singapore, where key facts and figures will trace the progress, or the lack of it, made by women in education, work, public life, and in society generally. These facts will be brought to life with reference to some of the 160 women in the Singapore Women's Hall of Fame (SWHF).

MEMBER'S EVENTS

Symposium Wanita 2019 – Dear Future Self

Sunday, 20 October 2019
Organised by PPIS

Join PPIS at Symposium Wanita 2019! The Symposium this year focuses on the importance of preparing holistically for the silver years particularly in the areas of health, finances and career from young. Most young people may feel that their silver years are still too early or far away to start planning for. Through the conference, PPIS hopes for young women to take advantage of their prime age and time to prepare themselves for this inevitable reality by making smart and well-informed decisions for their silver years.
