The Lives of Women:

How have women progressed in Singapore since independence?

By the Singapore Women's Hall of Fame

This exhibition is the second of the three-part series about the lives of women in Singapore, where key facts and figures will trace the progress, or the lack of it, made by women in education, work, public life, and in society generally. These facts will be brought to life with reference to some of the 160 women in the Singapore Women's Hall of Fame (SWHF).
